

X-PERIENCE, I want you

I want you to want me
for all that I am
I will always praise you again and again
I want you to love me for all that I am
I won't ever leave you I'll do all I can
for you
You are a damn good-looking man you are the one to survive the crown of creation we are still alive I hang on to your words believing whenever you say no hate and no harm will come my way
I want you to want me
for all that I am
I will always praise you again and again
I want you to love me for all that I am
I won't ever leave you
I'll do all I can
for you
You are the one to take me home
I turn my face to the sun you never would go and leave the needies Alone I keep the faith of being sheltered wherever I pray
no hate and no harm will come my way
I want you to want me
for all that I am
I will always praise you again and again
I want you to love me for all that I am
I won't ever leave you
I'll do all I can
for you
