

X-PERIENCE, The holy mountain

Take me right here where we are we fight the holy war i go down and if god is one of us the only one to trust take the crown
i believe i can fly
and i feel i can touch the sky
make me feel i survive
your embrace will keep me alive take me to the holy mountain to the place were we belong to our faith take me to the secret outland where the gods of love will fight crime and hate
get me right i go my way on every single day of my life hold me tight we gonna stay down on our knees we pray to survive
