

X-Wild, Children of the underground

White as snow
Eyes that fear the light
Pale and drawn
Children of the Underground
Dark and dank
Keepers of the light
Down they sank
Children of the Underground
Whipped and chained
Pain and death abound
In the mines
Children of the Underground
Heartless beasts
Urging on for more
Keep the magic flame
Burning bright for evermore
For heavens sake
We must not let them fall
We have to fight
The evil that men do
A cry goes up
Dear Braveheart save our souls
Release us from this penance
Oh so cruel
