

Xiu Xiu, Sad Redux-O-Grapher

he talked to me like I was smart he sexed me up all the time I did not get it, was this my time to shine I did not get it, had my luck finally turned LA LA LA LA LA
I saved up to take him out at night he said the restaurant was all wrong he said he had a dream about me and in that dream I was beautiful I made him a present it was a photograph of me
I did not get it, he said it did not cost me anything
