Xiu Xiu, Xiu Xiu - Rose Of Sharon

It's light outside when you finally see a quiet failure sleeping next to you don't think don't try don't rush away when i say you deserve less
