

Xmal Deutschland, Dreamhouse

When the night lies down to rest
I get wrapped in early morning light
Colours of copper and purple
Colours of copper and gold
Oh there it is again
Follows me follows and drives
And draws around me
This shade of wishes

You tore down my dreamhouse
Each stone takes my world away
You tore down my dreamhouse
You tore down my dreamhouse
My dreamhouse

It's the demon behind me
A ghost with ever changing name
I call you my bad desire
I call you my bird of prey
Oh, there it is again
Follows me follows and drives
It's claws inside me

Like blades of wishes

You tore down my dreamhouse
Each stone takes my world away
You tore down my dreamhouse
You tore down my dreamhouse
You tore my
My dreamhouse

You tore down my dreamhouse
Each stone takes my world away
You tore down my dreamhouse
You tore down my dreamhouse

You tore down my dreamhouse
Each stone takes my world away
You tore down my dreamhouse
Each stone takes my world away

You tore down my dreamhouse
You tore down my dreamhouse
My dreamhouse
