

Y&T, Midnight In Tokyo

From afar I have come
Cause you called to me
A guitar was the sound that you heard
Like a song on a wave
From across the sea
Like a vaguely familiar word
The ring of fire wont discourage me
Though the earth moved under my feet
The day that we touched
And now, Im here with you
But now, Im wanting to
Get back to my home and the ones
I miss so much

Midnight, midnight in Tokyo
Where the neon lights the land of the rising sun
Midnight, oh midnight I must go
But one day Ill return if youll only wait for me

In each place I can feel the warmth of you
In your face I can see that youre strong
And respect is what Ive learned from you
When Im gone, it wont be for long
I ride the bullet through the heart of you
Though the winds will blow
And the rain will fall when Im gone
But now, Im here with you
And now, Im wanting to get back to my home
And the ones who miss me so much

Midnight, midnight in Tokyo
Where the neon lights the land of the rising sun
Midnight, oh midnight I must go
But one day Ill return if youll only wait for me
