

Yael Na?m, Lonely

You are not alone
I am here with you
Even when you're scared
I'll never leave you
Standing in a storm
Making it insane
Once again, I would try
To enchain you
But you open your eyes to the sky and whisper
(Refrain)
That you are so lonly
You are so alone
You're so alone
You're so lonely, so lonely
So I'm colouring my face
While I am here with you
Imagining the landscape of your sorrow
Is it yellow or blue?
Colouring the sky, and the trees and the clouds, and the moonlight
I'd coloured your heart
If you didn't I did
(Refrain*2)
And I wish you could just find home
