

Yael Na?m, Shelcha

Too many screams in my throat
Too many faces
Too many plans
That I wanted to change
So many words
If I can tell you
There's no other love but the one I live with you Still don't know how we let all this happened will this war last forever and ever?
They've burned my hands
Cut my hair and steal my soul
But do you really want to know?
Rest in peace with my sorrows
Are we alone or together
Or are you my greatest war?
