

Yam, New me

There i am
listening to nirvana
when you walked over never knew who you were but your face seemed familiar (chorus)
i'm a new me
can't believe your eyes
take another look
coz you can't have me
i'm stolen by someone else wish you would have got me when you had the chance what bad luck
i go on listening
not even thinking about you your face is familiar just who are you
i take off my headphones
and look up
i noticed it was you
you said hi
and i was thinking why now?
after a long time
(bridge)
i'm dressed as me
nothing like before
listening to descent music you got me into funny how someone like you got me into things like this
take another look
and look good
i'm over you
get the clue
we have a talk
i'm amazed you're even talking to me when you said you would use the fact that i liked you against me in the wrong way, well you can take it all back coz you can't have this
bridge
funny how you came crawling back knew you would wish you would have taken the time to relize you liked me too late
try again in a few years when i'm not thinking about someone else
bridge
chorus
bridge
nice to hear from ya
why didn't we talk before well goodbye
say goodbye coz this is your last chance even though there isn't
