

Yam, Not running yet

Walking not running yet in know your secret im speeding up i see you and i close my eyes im not ready to see your face
im running,im speding i got to get away from you, im running,im speding im ashamed of you and thats truth, im running,im speding how could i love some one like you im walking not running yet I see your eyes there full of regret
But you havent got near me yet
To say your sorry what do ya bet?
im running,im speding i got to get away from you,
im running,im speding im ashamed of you and thats truth,
im running,im speding how could i love some one like you whats your problem cant you see how unhappy you make me

So I come right back to you
Im walking not gunna run
I can see you are fun
I havent ever been happy yet
Were gunna stick together whats the bet
Im walking not gunna run
I can see you are fun
I havent ever been happy yet
Were gunna stick together whats the bet
Im walking not gunna run
I can see you are fun
I havent ever been happy yet
Were gunna stick together whats the bet
