

Yam, Typical

verse 1

You let me down
you're never around
how can i expect you to be there for me?
you said you could
and you really would be there
when i needed you at all

chorus

thats so typical of you you broke your promises to me and you know that this love will never last when i needed you the most you was unreachable i'm lost
and you know
i wont take this anymore

verse 2

if i cant rely on my man then why
is there any point in me living at all?
it's not fair on me
i loved you now pay the fee love me back
and show me the man i fell for

chorus

verse 3

i know what i should do move on from,from you
but it's hard
cause i know i love you but can you prove to me the man man that you can be?
or is he just a show thats put on for me?

ad lib

i know that i am weak but i'll make it through you cant break me down
ill beat you
i'm gonna win
