

Yann Tiersen, Something To Live For

Warm like the sun
You give me your hand
And say come in
?? breath
A funny face
You say come in
All has changed from here
I will (come in)?? / I welcome it in
All has changed

Now i can't explain
The path is newly paved
And sorrow hides its face
I've found someone to live for
No i can't explain
The path is newly paved
And sorrow hides its face
I've found someone to live for

Give me your hand
I'll lead the way
No i can't explain
The path is newly paved
Sorrow hides in shame
I've found someone to live for

Someone to live for
Now go
Little sparrow
I'll send you on your way
With paper wings
I'll send you on your way
No i can't believe
What i've seen
No i just can't believe
Farewell
Little sparrow
On your way
