

Yannick Bovy, Six

I was done
Nearly out
Guess I lost my way somehow
Now I'm in
With a shout
Since you turned my whole world upside down
It's so easy just to hide away
Close your eyes and cross your heart
But I've got my winning ticket
And I'm in it

Lay down my aces and took my chance
But I bet it all on a losing hand
Now baby you rescue me
May be destiny
Come smile for a while
Cause lady luck has never been a friend of mine
But this could be my time
Cause I roll the dice
And I got a six tonight

Lot's of rush
Then it drops
You're addicted to this game
Now I know where it stops
But you spin that wheel around anyway
It's so easy just to hide away
Close your eyes and cross your heart
But I've got my winning ticket
And I'm in it

Lay down my aces and took my chance
But I bet it all on a losing hand
Now baby you rescue me
May be destiny
Come smile for a while
Cause lady luck has never been a friend of mine
But this could be my time
Cause I roll the dice
And I got a six tonight

I got a six tonight

It's so easy just to hide away
Close your eyes and cross your heart
But I've got my winning ticket
And I'm in it
To win it

Lay down my aces and took my chance
But I bet it all on a losing hand
Now baby you rescue me
May be destiny
Cause lady luck has never been a friend of mine
But this could be my time
Cause I roll the dice
And I got a six tonight

And I got a six tonight
I got a six tonight
