

Yeasayer, Forgiveness

Let me run

I've come to beg for forgiveness
So forgive me
And I'll take all that I'm given
All that I'm given
And I dream to live by your reason
I am a reason
But I read all of my speeches
All of my speeches

My workstation of the dawn
Doesn't mean that much

And I've come to beg for forgiveness
So forgive me
And I'll take all that I'm given
All that I'm given
And I try to teach by my doing
Your undoing
But my time will be your ruin
Will be your ruin

My workstation of the dawn
Doesn't mean that much
