

Yellowcard, A.W.O.L

Maybe it's not over yet somewhere inside of me must be some new dream awaiting the top of the rest when he finds himself feeling alive yet alone...
Maybe the best he can get he's still out of his reach Ran from the life that he hates so bad to find some new beginning of
and in the future they did and took away knowing what they would say Just in the rise above all of the simplified answers they gave him back then when surrounded by love he could not make sense of feeling alive yet alone Maybe the best he can get
he simply put by faith that he knows he's the champion of the planet but he's told he was wrong to somehow deciding to run from the life that he hates so bad
to find some new beginning of
