

Yellowcard, Finish Line

Hello friend, it's been too long,
And every town sings the same sad song.

Hello friend, it's been too long,
And every town sings the same sad song.
Without you here this hotel year,
We'll sure slow down, with so much left to hear.

Chorus: Let's jet back down
(That highway now) blast stereo's loud.
Let's jet back down that highway now.

The finish line is almost here
And someone softly whispers in my ear,
Times like these are memories to hold
Deep down inside of you and me
(Chorus x2)

I'm not leaving you, I'm not leaving
(I'm not leaving you, I'm not leaving)
(Goodbye friend it won't be long and
Until then we'll sing the same sad song)
Sad song
(Chorus x2)

Lets jet back down (that highway now)
Lets jet back down (that highway now)
Lets jet back down (that highway now)
