

Yellowcard, Words, Hands, Hearts

The whole world was sleeping
And I was there
You could just sense this feeling in the air
But no one's words were good enough to define what we feared
And no one's words were strong enough to fix what happened here

(Chorus)

Lead on to save me
Lead us all there
Find me some answers
One nation beware
Can't tell the difference between myth and man
Or what's necessary or where I should stand

The whole world is different now men have died
They can just sense this feeling in our eyes
But no one's hands are big enough
To hold onto this fear
And no one's hands are strong enough to fix what happened here

(Chorus)

So do we dare now
Raise our voices loud
We're searching for something that cannot be found
I hear open mouths
I see open hands
But the Blinded and silent, I can't understand

The whole world is watching with one blank stare
I can just sense this feeling of ill-repair
But no one's heart is full enough
To keep away this fear
And no one's heart is strong enough to fix what happened here

Lead on to save me
Or Lead us all there
Find me some answers
It's time that you shared
Can't tell the difference between myth and man
Or what's necessary or where I should stand

So do we dare now
Raise our voices loud
We're searching for something that cannot be found
I hear open mouths
And I see open hands
But the blinded and silent I can't understand
