

Yes, All Connected

Always true pathways
Open doorways
Right of ways for everyone

Tell me how can we break down walls any other way

Always true pathways
Upon us equal shines the sun

All for the tragic
Karmachromatic

Static to obscure the very key of life, our global symphony

Karmachromatic
It's only static

The key defines the scale we climb
To at last perceive we are
We are contrast in harmony

You're never out of reach
You're never out of mind
So free your mind
This is your time

For those who wish to seek Forgotten and left behind

We are connected Respect it, the Collective

Like satellites ...
(There's nowhere you can run)
... passing in ...
(There's nowhere you can hide)
... the timeless night
(Connecting all our lives)

You're never out of reach
You're never out of mind

Free your mind
This is your time

Know together we stand strong

Why take it all to heart
Then for a rain drop you fall apart
Take the ups and downs in stride
Often times just let things ride

There's no where you can run
There's no where you can hide

We're all connecting

You're never out of reach
You're never out of mind

We're all connecting

Connecting

You're never out of reach
And those you wish to seek
Are those you will find

There's nowhere left to run
So many words being thrown round and round

Tell me how can we break down walls any
other way

Always true pathways

All for the tragic
