

Yesterdays Hero, Waiting

You're so special to me.

You fill my thoughts.

As I sit right here I think about your smile, your beauty and your grace.

I so long to hear your name.

I wish that you could feel the same.

I know you're somewhere thinking of me, what does it mean.

I think of you and all that you do.

I'll wait for you.

If I took you out I promise I would have you home at a decent hour

I would treat you like an angel.
