If I were a flower
You'd be the sunshine
On a sunny day for me
Then I'd only be looking at you
My floral senses are directed at you

□□□□ □□□, oh-oh

Life is always like a domino
And everything collapses
When someone touches it
Then let's hold each other
So that we don't fall

If I were a flower
You'd be the sunshine
On a sunny day for me
Then I'd only be looking at you
If I could be flower
I'll grow up with your heart
My floral senses are directed at you
My senses are directed at you
