

Yngwie Malmsteen, Broken Glass

(Japanese bonus track)

I paid the piper with my song
For all the times I've done you wrong
I watched the devil get his due
And I knew that was for you

It breaks my heart
Our time has passed by telling lies
I fall apart
Like broken glass on shattered ice

We gave up our love within
To keep ourselves from giving in
I know my world will always turn
When you burn, you'll live and learn

Like an intruder in your arms
I never meant to do you harm
I know my song, it will remain
All the same, I feel the pain
