

Yngwie Malmsteen, I'd Die Without You

Enough is enough
I'm nobody's fool
I won't take no more
Oh now I'm out the door
I won't live by anyone's rules
I feel it's safe to say I'm on my own
It's just another lesson learned
No love lost
Life's like gettin' blood from a stone
We all live by cards that were dealt
I don't want no promises, don't want no lies
Go sell them to somebody else
I think it's safe to say, I'm on my own
It's just another lesson learned
No love lost
(We've had enough, can't take no more)
