

Yngwie Malmsteen, Legion Of The Damned

Legion Of The Damned
Legion Of The Damned
Deprived of our lives, pushed into war
Our fearless leader lies, he's rotten to the core
As per instruction
march through no man's land Machines of destruction, combat hand to hand
Marching over frozen water,
soon reaching the front
Into the merciless slaughter
on the human hunt
Battling the enemy that we don't know
We're strangers in a strange land
Losing it all we are sinking so low
We're the Legion of the Damned
Legion Of The Damned
Legion Of The Damned
Legion Of The Damned
Soldier without faith, fight fire with fire Don't know why we hate, so we'll die trying
This is madness without end, are we men or fools There's no honour to defend,
we obey insane rules Mortars blowing us to pieces, hell is breaking loose Minds all sick full of diseased, no one sees the truth
Marching over frozen water,
soon reaching the front
Into the merciless slaughter
on the human hunt
Battling the enemy that we don't know
We're strangers in a strange land
Losing it all we are sinking so low
We're the Legion of the Damned
Legion Of The Damned
Legion Of The Damned
Legion Of The Damned
Legion Of The Damned
Legion Of The Damned
Legion Of The Damned
Legion Of The Damned
When it's said and done, there'll be no victory They're blocking out the sun, all that's left is misery
Marching over frozen water,
soon reaching the front
Into the merciless slaughter
on the human hunt
We're strangers in a strange land
Losing it all we are sinking so low
We're the Legion of the Damned
Battling the enemy that we don't know
We're strangers in a strange land
Losing it all we are sinking so low
We're the Legion of the Damned
Legion Of The Damned
Legion Of The Damned
Legion Of The Damned...
