

Yngwie Malmsteen, Magic Mirror

"Everyone is searching for the Meaning of our life.
Reading 'bout the hell and heaven
Believing all those lies.
Look upon yourself
Imagine you are two
Power lies within this is true.
Can't you see its clear like a mirror
It's all within what you're searching for
Magic mirror, magic mirror
Magic mirror, magic mirror
Now your eyes are open,
and you know you were a fool.
You always had the power,
But you never broke the rules.
Look upon yourself
Imagine you are two
Power lies within this is true
Can't you see its clear like a mirror
It's all within what you're searching for
Magic mirror, Magic mirror
Magic mirror, Magic mirror
Once again I say,
The strength that we are all searching for,
High and low we all looked in vain
Can't you see, it's clear like a mirror.
It's all within what you're searching for.
Magic mirror, Magic mirror
Magic mirror, Magic mirror
