

Yngwie Malmsteen, Prophet Of Doom

Run, Run Run for your lives
Swiftly take cover
We're paying the price
The Sun, The Sun
The Sun is falling down
I can hear the people cry

I feel it, I see it
The End is drawing near
No one can stop what has begun

Prophet of Doom, The End is coming soon
Hear the Thunder, Thor's wonder,
Of doom, of doom, of doom
Of doom, of doom, of doom

Time, Time
There is no Time
To make it right
To see the light
Lies, Lies
Those were all lies
So now we are fighting
Yes, we must fight

The earth is quaking
We are shaking
The End is drawing near
No One can pray
And make it go away

You feel it
You see it
The End is drawing New
No one can stop what has begun

Prophet of Doom
Hear the Thunder, Thor's wonder,
Of doom, of doom, of doom
Of doom, of doom, of doom

The earth is quaking
We are shaking
The End is drawing near
No One can pray
And make it go away

You feel it
You see it
The End is drawing New
No one can stop what has begun

Prophet of Doom, The End is coming soon
Hear the Thunder, Thor's wonder,
Of doom, of doom, of doom
