

Yoav, Adore Adore

This is the story that time forgot and though some names have changed some names some names have not and every night at six o'clock you can open up a magic box and see me there ready or not here I come I'm free

I've got so many names let Lucifer Longtail suffice so many faces so many devices from the sweet smile on the talk show host to the suicide celebrity ghost there that's me there the ace in the hole of America's soul

Adore Adore
bow down before
bow down before
adore adore
a star is born
you start to fall
down on your knees
and adore me

and now we already know the news is bought and sold by the man with the plan and the corporate gold and we already know that the story can change at the roll of a dice reality rearranges that's me there and everywhere you didn't think I could be I am

Adore Adore
bow down before
bow down before
adore adore
a star is born
down on your knees

and I'll be down in the secrets that you're dreaming and I'll be there when you wake up in the morning and I'll be there when you get home in the evening 'til the daze of your life is done

This is the song that the caged bird sings i'm curled up like a cat at the corner of everything but don't feel bad even if you could because if you did not do it someone else just would it's easy believe me
I'll show you such wonderful things
'til you're just like me
