

Yoko Ono, Lord, Take This Makeup Off Me

Lord, take this makeup off of me.

I said, "lordy, lordy, lordy, take this makeup offa me."

It's bad enough on the beach,

But it's worse in the sea.

Because I'm knockin' on heaven's door.

Because I'm lookin' for my ma.

I said, "ma, take these guns away from me."

I said, "ma, take these guns away from me."

I got so thin now, they're draggin' me down to my knees.

Oh yeah, man, do you mr. jones?

Town,

Now I've been here so long, I almost forgot my name.

I said, "lord I been here so long I almost forgot my name."

But as long as I keep touring,

I'll always be in the game, fame, brain, shame and fame and game, fame, fame....
