

Yolanda Adams, Its Gonna Be Nice

Its gonna be nice by Yolanda Adams

Well, well
Its gonna be nice, its gonna be nice
Whatever He's got for me, its gonna be nice
Its crazy right now Lord,
But that's when You shine
I can't stop shouting knowing it's gonna be nice

Well, well
You never promised me that my days will problem free
But you did promise to always take care of me
Right now it seems that my troubles will never end
I know you promised to be my closest friend and its gonna be nice

Its gonna be nice, its gonna be nice
Whatever He's got for me, its gonna be nice
(It's crazy right now)Its crazy right now Lord,
But that's when you shine
I can't stop shouting knowing it's gonna be nice

Well, well
I gotta remind myself daily, who lives inside of me
And when I stay close to you, close to me you gonna be
No more crying about my situation
I know what I gotta do
I gotta pray, gotta trust, gotta believe
Depend on you yeah!

Its gonna be nice, its gonna be nice
Whatever He's got for me, its gonna be nice
Its crazy right now Lord,
But that's when you shine
I can't stop shouting knowing it's gonna be nice

I don't (I don't have the right to give up)
I don't (I don't have the right to give in)
You are (You gonna bring me through ohh!)
Yes you are (I'm gonna put my trust in you)
I don't (I don't have the right to give up)
I don't (I don't have the right to give in)
Because you (you always brought me through)
So I'm going (so, I'm gonna put my my my trust in you)

Its gonna be nice (Sing it with me)
Its gonna be nice (it's crazy right now, crazy right now)
Whatever He's got for me, its gonna be nice (but I know I can see my way through this)
It's crazy right now Lord (but I know you working in the mist of it)
But that's when you shine
I can't stop shouting knowing it's gonna be nice (I can shout right now)
(Its crazy) it's crazy right now Lord
(he hey, that's when you come through for me)But that's when you shine
(every time every time, its gonna be nice) I can't stop shouting knowing it's gonna be nice
