

Yolanda Adams, Since The Last Time I Saw You

Oh, ooh
Yea, yea, yea, yea, yea

Since the last time I saw you
God has moved another mountain out of my way
Led me to green pastures
Turned my midnight into day
Placed my feet upon rock to stand
Oh yes

Since the last time I saw you
God has calmed another raging storm in my life
Led me into safety
Turned my darkness into light
And now I stand in the power of his might

You would have thought that God has already done enough for me
When he took my place at Calvary
But he does so much more and more right before me eyes
And I have no other choice but to stand and testify
Stand and testify

Since the last time I saw you
God has worked another wondrous miracle for me
Led me into triumph now my blinded eyes can see
That Christ the Lord performs victoriously, oh

You would have thought that he'd done enough for me
When he took my place at Calvary
But he does more, and more, and more, and more every day
He makes a way and he's made a way
Since the last time I saw you
Things have changed
I'm not the same
Since the last time
