

York feat. Asheni, Mercury Rising

In the shadows again
Breathe in without it sung the same
If i wasn't afraid
Inside it wouldn't be too late
To kiss away the sorrow
To shelter me from sin
If i could change tomorrow what would it bring
Mercury rising
Never showing her face
The secret she's hiding lies in empty space
Mercury rising
Heaven rising to praise
Words of enlightenment vanish free of trace
Mercury rising
Heaven saltine to brazed
Words of enlightenment vanish free of trace
Mercury rising
