

You, Me, And Everyone We Know, I Can Get Back

There was a time when never thought that be this close with anyone
I rather listen to the harshest words was be abused at ten in the harsh pacific sun
There was a time when I was at your side
It was 3am and you were begging me to die
Another year was all it took for you to forget the best from it
I always carried you
So are you still saying im not when I already am(you keep on kicking me down)
And why are you still saying we wont when we already are(you keep on kicking me down,you keep
Aint it a shame to be so young and insane
Aint it a shame to be so young and insane
I used to love what I used to love Moving on was a chore I wasnt quite ready for
They used to say I was a cautious man,
Its been weeks since I looked both ways or gave a damn
There was a time when I was at your side
It was 3am and you were begging me to die
Another year was all it took for you to forget the best from it
I always carried you
And why are you still saying we wont when we already are(you keep on kicking me down, you keep
Aint it a shame to be so young and insane
Aint it a shame to be so young and insane
Aint it a shame to be so young and insane
Aint it a shame to be so young and insane
Was there something I said?
Cause there sure as hell will be now
Was there something I said to make you doubt that I could get back up
Cause I can get back up
Yeah, I can get back up
Yeah, I can get back up
Aint it a shame to be so young and insane
Aint it a shame to be so young and insane
So are you still saying Im not when I already am
Aint it a shame to be so young and insane
