

You me at six, Kiss And Tell

You're so good,
And you're so bad,
And everybody wants to be your man.
Your so good and your so bad,
And everybody wants to be. .
In your hair,
And under your skin,
And in those clothes,
And on those, lips.
But me.

Kiss And Tell,
Everybody else,
And you're at your best,
When I'm making,
Making baby steps.

You make the rules up as you go,
So I've gotta make some of my own,
You make the rules up as you go,
So I'm gonna send your love home.

What did you expect from me?
I said there's so much more that you won't see.
What did you expect from me?
I said I'm smarter than,
Him you see.

Kiss and Tell,
Everybody else,
And you're at your best,
When I'm making,
Baby steps,
And I'm sick and tired,
Of bein' the good guy.
And I've done my time,
You should,
Hit the back of the line.

I know, you don't need to tell me /6x

I know, you don't,
I know, you don't,

Need to tell me,
tell me.

Kiss and Tell,
Everybody else,
And you're at your best,
When I'm making,
Baby steps,
And I'm sick and tired,
Of bein' the good guy.
And I've done my time,
You should,
Hit the back of the line.
