

Your Naked Girlfriend, Fate life has dragged me to the ground every day I'm here around things were never clear to me is there still a reason to be? no love in my heart, no fun in my head I think fate wants me to be dead fuckin' fate against me depression is my well-known bloke wind grew strong so my wings broke when I once was trying to fly now I'm afraid of getting too high so I stay down here wasting my days and follow my fuckin' fates ways

I thought with you I'd get strong but what I thought was fucking wrong with you I got a reason in life now I only want to strife you said you love - it's a fucking lie turned away to another guy

I scream out my wishes but however we won't ever be together in my heart there's so much fear I've to destroy the pain in here and if the only way out is kill then you'll have to pay the bill
