

Youth Brigade, Confusion

My minds a shambles, I can't get straight
I'm so afraid, afraid with hate
My minds a shambles, I don't know where
I'm coming or going or if I care

Tell me what I'm feeling
Conditions being won
Problems we've been facing
The days when we were young

Confusion, confusion
Drown you sorrow, it'll ease the pain
Confusion, confusion
Don't need to understand what you can't explain

My minds a shambles, I can't get straight
I'm so afraid, afraid with hate
My minds a shambles, I don't know where
I'm coming or going or if I care

Tell me what I'm feeling
Conditions being won
Problems we've been facing
The days when we were young

Confusion, confusion
Drown you sorrow, it'll ease the pain
Confusion, confusion
Don't need to understand what you can't explain

I'm so confused, I'm so confused
I'm so confused, I'm so confused

I'm so confused, leave me alone
I'm so confused, leave me alone
I'm so confused, leave me alone
I can't take it no more
I'm so confused, leave me alone
I'm so confused, leave me alone
I'm so confused, leave me alone
I can't take it no more

I'm so confused, leave me alone
I'm so confused, leave me alone
I'm so confused, leave me alone
I can't take it no more
I'm so confused, leave me alone
I'm so confused, leave me alone
I'm so confused, leave me alone
I can't take it no more
