

Youth Of Today, Slow Down

Lost the time to live no time to take caught in a cycle that won't give you a break tensions running high I can see it in your eyes you call that success I call it a lie

Slow down

I've got to slow down cause I want to see all of what this world has to offer me take a break appreciate before this lifetime slips away

Slow down

try to think back a long time ago when life was for living and the pace was slow wasn't it worth it Will you stay

I hope I don't let it slip away

Slow down
