

Yui, Goodbye to you

And of all the things I believed in
I just wanna carry in you, your eyes
You spawn behind my light is but I do night cry
Come each day past me by
I'll been shorting Eden my soul
Using a heary and I'm stroting to get old
You life I'm surfing, I'm a over again
Last be in past me by
And I say - right
Goodbye to you
Goodbye to everything, what I do
You would like to learn I cry
Hoping that I try to hold on to
Oh oh woah oh
And the horns want everything
And nothing gets the same sign
I want what's yours and I'll what was mine
I want to, and never give in disguise
Goodbye to you
Goodbye to everything, what I do
You would like to learn I cry
Hoping that I try to hold on to
Hoping that I try to hold on to Hold on to
Oh oh woah oh
And let the stroke pass by the life thick
Youre none shooting star
