

Yuki Kajiura, Aura

if you are near to the dark I will tell you 'bout the sun you are here, no escape from my visions of the world you will cry all alone but it does not mean a thing to me knowing the song I will sing till the darkness comes to sleep come to me, I will tell 'bout the secret of the sun it's in you, not in me but it does not mean a thing to you the sun is in your eyes
the sun is in your ears I hope you see the sun someday in the darkness
but you can't see the sun ever in the darkness
it does not much matter to me
