

Yuki Kajiura, Obsession

deep in the night
far off the light
missing my headache
visions of light
sweeter delight
kissin' my loveache
how come I must know
where obsession needs to go?
how come I must know
where the passion hides its feelings?
how come I must know
where obsession needs to go?
how come I must know
the direction of relieving?
