

Yuna, Risk It All

Let me tell you what
I've been thinking about
Love is on my mind
Yea I'm freakin' out

When I'm lying down
Feels like somethings wrong
Coz I got someone
Waiting for me now

In my mind,
we're holding hands
Do you see it baby?
In my mind
We don't got to pretend
Can you feel it babe?

I would risk it all
Just to feel your touch
I just want it all
If it aint too much
If the sky should fall
We can say we tried
Boy its natural
Let our worlds collide

Someone told me once
When you find your love
Hang on to it tight
Never let it go
Not gonna wait to find the courage
I'm gon' go ahead and say it
Before it's too late
Just listen to me baby
In my mind,
we're holding hands
Do you see it baby?
In my mind
We don't got to pretend
Can you feel it babe?

I would risk it all
Just to feel your touch
I just want it all
If it aint too much
If the sky should fall
We can say we tried
Boy its natural
Let our worlds collide

I would leave it all
To be with you
You should leave it all
To be with me too
