

Yvonne, I Feel It

Album: True Love (1999)

it's been a while
come on, come on
it's alright, i feel it

i've been tied down
come on, come on

why do i have this doubt?

if i survive this i'm gonna take new stand i'd do anything just to feel the sweet touch of the hand honey stand by your man tell me again

come on, come on

why do i fear so much?
come on, come on

if i survive this i'm going down and pray i know i have it in me, i will hurt you so bad if i stay do you really want it this way?

they're the same, they're the same they're all the same with the static faces the slitted wrists and the fame and only themselves to blame and if faith means trust, there's no faith in me and i need noone, as noone needs me

i'd do anything just to feel the sweet touch of the hand oh honey stand by your man

and i need noone, noone needs me
