

Yvonne, The Cause Of Lovers

When they find you naked with strings around you then maybe they will laugh

with strings around you
then maybe they will laugh

When they find me naked with strings around me
then maybe they will laugh

And when they find me silent deformed and wired maybe they will laugh

When they find us twisted with strings around us then maybe we will bleed

When they find us laughing they might adore us and then maybe we will bleed

Then maybe I will bleed...
