

Zakk Wylde, 1,000,000 Miles Away

Sailing across my ocean, I'm sailing across my sea
I fill it up with hope, Lord, I drown in empty misery
Sailin' across my heaven, I'm sailing across my star
Until I find the voice I've been hearing in my head
Forever couldn't be too far, Forever couldn't be too far, yeah
Oh it couldn't be to far, Oh it couldn't be to far
The cold wind blows like a leaf on a tree
I can feel myself fallin, lord
I need your guiding hand to catch me
When you hear yourself this song
I hope it brings yourself a smile
The times we had we thought would last forever
But forever only lasts a little while
Forever only lasts a little while, yeah
Oh, just a little while
Oh, just a little while
Loneliness, my friend
I think about you every day, yeah
As I sail into, into the light, oh yeah
Lord, a million miles away, oh yeah
A million miles away
Loneliness, my friend
I think about you every day, yeah
As I sail, sail, Lord, into the light, oh yeah
Lord, a million miles away, oh yeah
A million miles away
