

Zakk Wylde, Suicide Messiah

Crawl through the flames that eat your flesh
Drowned in my waters that know you best
Step inside I've been waiting here for you

on your knees where you shall crawl
Flying so high you'll never fall
Step inside we've been waiting here for you

Bow down you've chose your maker
He never gives he's always the taker
The electric burns that fuel the fire
It's just your suicide messiah
Oh Yeah
Oh Yeah

Walk through the streets that know your name
All that's pure is now insane
Step inside I've been waiting here for you

Another trip another lie
Lifes hand of doom has you feeling fine
Step inside we've been waiting here for you

Bow down you chose your maker
He never gives he's always the taker
The electric burns that fuel the fire
