

Zara Larsson, Don't Worry Bout Me everything, everything's cool now i wanted you to know that i, i'm fine tonight why do you do that to me?

unfair now
after we're done then you care it's like you know I, I'm fine so why don't you remind yourself that?

don't worry about me
you should worry about you keep doing what you do best that's loving only yourself cause I've been sleeping ok.
that's your problem, so fix it!
cause I ain't none of your business now I've been sleeping ok now that you work like hell you see things that reminds you of me everywhere just know that I, I am fine tonight trying to stay in my life ain't got the space or the time it's too late now, I'm moving on I'm so unfazed you ain't wanting one no, don't worry about me

that's loving only yourself
cause I've been sleeping ok.
that's your problem, so fix it!
cause I ain't none of your business

don't worry about me
ain;t got the space of the time it's too late, now I'm moving on I'm so unfazed yu ain't wanting one

cause I've been sleeping ok.
that's your problem, so fix it!
