Zara Larsson, Only You

I don't wanna shower even if I stink
'Cause I don't wanna wash you off, wash you off my skin
It's been about an hour
And I'm still trembling, oh
Feelin' you deep, feelin' you deep within, eh

Opened bottles on the drawer Rolling papers on the floor Yeah, don't want no cigarette yet Don't want no drink in my breath, yeah Wanna taste your taste some more Feel you pourin' through my pores Yeah, I'm goin' back in my bed To play it back in my head

'Cause I can't love nobody like I love myself Like I love myself Only you, eh No one's ever touched me like I touch myself No, nobody else Only you, only you Only you
