

Zayn Malik, What I Am

I been drinking absinthe
I just did the math it ain't
Adding up, I've had enough of Running 'round this board game,
You can know your own name
I won't give it up

Am I crazy
Am I foolish
Am I stupid
For playing these games with you

If I told you, I loved you
Would you say that it's fucked up
If I told you they're flying
Would you say that you looked up
Don't take me for what I'm saying
Just take me for what I am
'Cause this is where I'm staying
My two feet are in the sand

I been reading old shit
And I can't make sense of it
Ain't no conspiracy that can save me
Living in the moment feels good
To me 'til it hurts and I need somebody

Am I crazy
Am I foolish
Am I stupid
For playing these games with you

If I told you, I loved you
Would you say that it's fucked up
If I told you they're flying
Would you say that you looked up
Don't take me for what I'm saying
Just take me for what I am
'Cause this is where I'm staying
My two feet are in the sand

Take me as I am, I'm tired
Of dancing around the point
Sharp and it is jagged like
The shape of glass and it steals
My voice

If I told you, I loved you
Would you say that it's fucked up
If I told you they're flying
Would you say that you looked up
Don't take me for what I'm saying
Just take me for what I am
'Cause this is where I'm staying
My two feet are in the sand

If I told you, I loved you
Would you say that it's fucked up
If I told you they're flying
Would you say that you looked up
Don't take me for what I'm saying
Just take me for what I am
'Cause this is where I'm staying
My two feet are in the sand
