You are loser in their eyes
They have their a way of life
Everybody knows, that we are zbeer
Everybody knows, that we feel
Have you ever see their fight?
Do you hear what they say?
Our crew will never die
It's my life, and this my way
Have you ever heard their voice?
They have known what's their roots
Our crew is our choise
You must feel our boots
If you meet they on the street
You must run rapidly
They are always drinking beer
They are skinheads,they are zbeer
