

Zebrahead, Rated "U" For Ugly

Hit me, hit me, hit me

With all you got

Just a superficial girl

who cares a lot

About attentions that you get

They connect the dots

To form a target on your back

Take your best shot

Who loves you?

Who needs you?

The paint's peeling off the wall

That's it, that's all.

Who loves you?

Who needs you?

The itch makes your skin crawl

That's it, that's all.

Head to the wall

Head to the wall

[Chorus:]

Life starring you, breaking through

Hold on tight to the radio

It's sad but true

Coming to the end of your

Life starring you, breaking through

Hold on tight to the radio

It's sad but true

Coming to an end near you

Give me, give me, give me

Got no heart to rot

When the scars and insecurities,

they hit the spot
And the acceptance that you crave
Is all for not
Left a crosshair on your head
Take your best shot

Who loves you?
Who needs you?
Always waiting for a call
That's it, that's all
Who loves you?
Who needs you?
Sets you up for a fall
That's it, that's all

Head to the wall
Head to the wall

[Chorus:]

Life starring you, breaking through
Hold on tight to the radio
It's sad but true
Coming to the end of your
Life starring you, breaking through
Hold on tight to the radio
It's sad but true
Coming to an end near you

You're so ugly with the lights on
Narcissistic Girl
You're so ugly with the lights on
Narcissistic Girl
You're so ugly with the lights on
Narcissistic Girl

Living in her "It's all about me world"

[Chorus:]

Life starring you, breaking through

Hold on tight to the radio

It's sad but true

Coming to the end of your

Life starring you, breaking through

Hold on tight to the radio

It's sad but true

Coming to an end near you

Coming soon to an end near you.
