

Zeromancer, Fade To Black

You live your life day by day
You can't feel it's slipping away
It's like heaven where you never get bored
You self inflicted Rock n roll whore

Can you feel it
Can you feel the clocks ticking away
Can you feel it
Can you feel the clocks ticking away

The world doesn't change in a day
The world doesn't change it
The world doesn't change in a day

It makes me sick
to see what you need to breathe
It makes me sick
to see
what you need
the world doesn't change in a day

You've got a thousand wounds to heal You gotta stop thinking nothing's for real electric shock won't bring you back You're fading baby
You fade to black

The world doesn't change in a day
The world doesn't change it
The world doesn't change in a day

It makes me sick
to see
what you need
to breathe
It makes me sick
to see
what you need
the world doesn't change in a day

[illegible]

what you mean
to me
